We are authorized to announce SAM'L T. JAMES as a candidate for Jailer of Bourbon County, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Frank Duvall, of Riddles Mills, will be my deputy.

ASSESSOR.

We are authorized to announce W. B. PINCKARD as a candidate for Assessor of Bourbon County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce HARRY HIBLER, of Paris, as a candidate for Assessor of Bourbon County, with HENRY L. CAYWOOD, of North Middletown, as deputy, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce CHAS. PEDDICORD as a candidate for the office of Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. If elected, my deputy will be W. G. McClintock.

Political Topics.

David B. Hill will speak in the Third Indiana District.

Hon. J. Y. Yerkes speaks at Cynthiana on the 24th.

The next Indiana Legislature will be Democratic by twelve majority.

Senator Deboe is announced to speak at Madisonville and Hartford to-morrow. The Democrats of Bardstown will give a grand barbecue on Saturday, October 6.

Mayor Jones, of Toledo, is out in a card denouncing the Republican administration and declaring his support of Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan spoke Saturday night at St. Louis to 15,000 at the Coliseum Hall. The meeting was under the auspices of the National Democratic Committee of Commercial Travelers.

Gov. Beckham and Congressman Wheeler spoke at Bowling Green Friday night to what was probably the largest political gathering in the history of the Third district. The crowd was estimated at from 8,000 to 9,000.

Bryan and Beckham Clubs are all the go. Eight clubs, with a membership of 1,281, have been organized in Daviess county. Bowling Green has a club of 250 members, and Midway has one with 100.

The Democratic Committee of the Seventh Appellate District met at Mt. Sterling Saturday and issued a call for a convention at Winchester September 29 to nominate a candidate for Appellate Judge. County conventions will be held September 24.

W. J. Bryan spoke to 15,000 people from an old band stand Friday at Columbus, O. The meeting was a great contrast to the Hanna speaking at Youngstown, where 3,000 people gathered to hear Hanna speak from a special $3,000 stand, and see the big parade with costly floats.

A Cool Million.

A dispatch from New York Saturday said: Richard Croker called at the headquarters of the Democratic State Committee to-day, taking with him harmony, joy, and report has it, $1,000,000 in money.

It was the first time since Bryan's nomination that the Tammany chieftain had visited the State Executive Committee headquarters, where the friends of Senator Hill are in charge. There was a long conference. Mr. Croker said he would call at the headquarters daily and spend all the time with the committee that they would allow him to. He expressed himself as very confident of the Democrats carrying New York State.

Senator James K. Jones, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, went to Washington to-day with Representative James D. Richardson. He will return on Monday and will spend several days here before going West.

The Legislature.

The Senate did not meet Saturday, and the House adjourned without accomplishing anything. Beginning to-day there will probably be lively sessions of the Senate and House, as the work will be transferred from the committees to the floors of the two bodies, at least until the appointment of conference committees, by which means an effort will be made to reach an agreement between Senate and House.

We are prepared to paint buggies, carriages, etc., in first class style, at reasonable prices.
E. J. McKIMY & SON.

Ladies, buy you a pair of good shoes at cost before I move. HARRY SIMON.

Thieves stole all of Eld. Howard Cree's clothing while he was absent from his home in Maysville.

A young ladies' oratorical contest will be held at Nicholasville on the 28th for a prize of a diamond ring. The contestants will be Miss Marie Griffin, Lexington; Miss Katie Haselden, Danville; Miss M. E. Allen, Millersburg; Miss White, Walnut Hills; Miss Margie Rue, Harrodsburg; Miss Lillian Armstrong, Flemingsburg.

Versailles ladies will organize a stock company to build an opera house. The shares will be $10 each.

Any advertised dealer is authorized to guarantee Banner Salve for tetter, eczema, piles, sprains, cuts, scalds, burns, ulcers and open or old sore. Clarke & Kenney.

A Few Corn Extras.

Corn oysters are good if properly made. Half grate on a rather fine grater eight ears of corn that is neither young nor very old, scraping out all the remaining pulp from the hulls on the cob. Add to this the beaten yolks of two eggs, one level teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth as much pepper and the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Fry in little cakes shaped like oysters in a spider in sweet leaf lard hot enough not to soak into the batter readily. If the corn is so watery that the cakes spread too much, add cracker dust to make the batter stiffer. Use neither milk nor flour.—Ella Morris Kretschmar in Woman's Home Companion.

Calve Slept at Windsor.

If Calve did win a wager of £1,000 by sleeping at Windsor castle the night she sang there for the queen's entertainment, she will probably not be invited soon again. It is Queen Victoria's custom on these occasions to send the performers back on the same evening, but Mme. Calve, according to the story, had such a cold that she was invited to remain. She is said to have wagered £10 against £1,000 with Alfred Rothschild that she could do it.

New cut steel buckles are most of them long and come in a variety of shapes. Some of them are made to stand upright and have only one end intended to be visible. This is a pretty ornamental point from which the rest of the buckle broadens out.

It has long been rumored that the bolero would disappear. This is not yet the fact. It has, however, changed its form and is cut quite short at the back, leaving the hips bare, but the long fronts often extend some inches below the waist line.

Mme. Ada Adini, who is achieving fame as one of the most distinguished Brunhildes of the foreign stage, is an American by birth. Her home is in Paris, and her husband, M. Libmet, is publisher of Le Monde Artiste Illustré.

Miss Amy Wintergreen, the first volunteer nurse to go from Chicago to Cuba, and Miss Adele Pinner have charge of the nurses at the emergency hospital recently opened by the Chicago Women's Medical club.

People who at night are troubled by mosquitoes should rub camphor on the pillow to prevent themselves being stung. A little spirit of camphor rubbed over the face answers the same purpose.
